West Bradford Golf Club is entering a new era with a new Head Greenkeeper and new Steward and Stewardess joining at the end of last year.

Our new Head Greenkeeper, Robert Cleisham has already had an impact on the course as he, along with his team of greens staff have improved the quality and appearance of the bunkers, the fairways and the greens. We thought that the impact of the prolonged bad weather at the turn of the year might have diminished Robert's enthusiasm for his new job. Nothing could be further from the truth.

The existing team, with a lot of hard work and a change of approach to equipment acquisition and the management of the Greens budget, are now reaping their rewards.

Some warmer weather and a little rain (hopefully not during the day!) are encouraging the grass to grow. Fairway and green definition is beginning to take shape and just looking back up the 17th you will soon appreciate the direction in which the Greens staff are taking West Bradford Golf Club in 2010.

In the Clubhouse, Richard and Sam Thorpe are quickly developing a reputation for providing good quality food and service at very competitive prices. Nothing appears to phase these two, who came from one of Bradford's best pub/restaurants high on the hills in Thornton.

The Sunday carvery is excellent value at £4.50 for a main course of the roast of the day. For those with larger appetites starters and sweets are available and your bill is unlikely to break the bank. A relaxed and welcoming atmosphere is always here at West Bradford.

With this service we can now support business meetings and small conferences within either a private room or within the main lounge with access to the internet and audio visual facilities. The venue remains an excellent choice for birthday celebrations, weddings etc.

A new committee has just taken office and with their commitment and enthusiasm the club will continue to grow it's reputation as one of the best places to play golf and enjoy good food and drink.

Book / enquire online or telephone us and we will endeavour to meet your needs, however large or small.
